

Fidelity National Financial, Inc. Announces Amendment and Extension of Credit Facility

Jacksonville, Fla. -- (March 5, 2010) -- Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (NYSE:FNF), a leading provider of title insurance, mortgage services, specialty insurance, claims management services and information services, today announced the amendment and extension of its existing $1.1 billion senior unsecured revolving credit facility ("credit facility") that was scheduled to mature on October 24, 2011.

The total size of the extended credit facility has been reduced to $925 million, with an FNF option to increase the size of the credit facility to $1.1 billion, and the maturity date has been extended to March 5, 2013. Pricing under the extended credit facility has increased to an applicable margin of between 110 basis points to 190 basis points over LIBOR, depending on the senior debt ratings of FNF. At the current Moody's and Standard & Poor's senior debt ratings of Baa3/BBB-, the applicable margin is 150 basis points. Financial covenants remain the same as in the previous credit facility, including minimum consolidated net worth and maximum indebtedness to capitalization ratio covenants. The applicable margin will increase by 50 basis points on October 24, 2011. Bank of America Securities LLC, Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., and U.S. Bank, National Association acted as joint lead arrangers of the credit facility.

"We are excited to complete the amendment and extension of our existing credit facility," said Executive Chairman William P. Foley, II. "This amendment and three-year extension enhances our longer term liquidity profile and continues our strategy of conservatively managing our balance sheet and liquidity position during these uncertain times."
