Item 8.01 Other Events

In connection with the pending acquisition (the “Acquisition”) of Stewart Information Services Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“Stewart”) by Fidelity National Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“FNF”), FNF received on May 31, 2018, a request for additional information and documentary material, often referred to as a “Second Request,” from the United States Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”) in connection with the FTC’s Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the “HSR Act”) regulatory review of the Acquisition. The effect of the Second Request is to extend the waiting period imposed by the HSR Act until 30 days after FNF and Stewart have substantially complied with the Second Request, unless that period is extended voluntarily by the parties or terminated sooner by the FTC.

Stewart and FNF have been working, and will continue to work, cooperatively with the FTC and continue to expect the Acquisition to close by the first or second quarter of 2019. Completion of the Acquisition remains subject to approval by Stewart stockholders, approvals from applicable federal, state and international regulators and satisfaction of other customary closing conditions.

Forward-Looking Statements and Risk Factors

This Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements regarding our expectations, hopes, intentions or strategies regarding the future are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are based on management’s beliefs, as well as assumptions made by, and information currently available to, management. Because such statements are based on expectations as to future financial and operating results and are not statements of fact, actual results may differ materially from those projected. We undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

The risks and uncertainties which forward-looking statements are subject to include, but are not limited to: changes in general economic, business and political conditions, including changes in the financial markets; weakness or adverse changes in the level of real estate activity, which may be caused by, among other things, high or increasing interest rates, a limited supply of mortgage funding or a weak U. S. economy; our potential inability to find suitable acquisition candidates; our dependence on distributions from our title insurance underwriters as a main source of cash flow; significant competition that our operating subsidiaries face; compliance with extensive government regulation of our operating subsidiaries; the risk that Stewart stockholders may not adopt the merger agreement; the risk that the necessary regulatory approvals may not be obtained or may be obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated; risks that any of the closing conditions to the Acquisition may not be satisfied in a timely manner; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully, that such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected or that the expected benefits of the acquisition will not be realized; and other risks detailed in the “Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information,” “Risk Factors” and other sections of FNF’s Form 10-K, the Form S-4, and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”).

Additional Information and Where to Find It

In connection with the Acquisition, FNF filed a registration statement on Form S-4, containing a proxy statement/prospectus with the SEC on May 30, 2018 (“FNF’s Form S-4”). Investors and security holders will be able to obtain copies of the proxy statement/prospectus as well as other filings containing information about FNF and Stewart, without charge, at the SEC’s website, sec.gov. Copies of documents filed with the SEC by FNF will be made available free of charge on FNF’s investor relations website.
